SCARECROW

by Mike Kenny

'Children's theatre to remember'

The end of Winter. The distant cawing of crows.

In a furrowed field stands a lonely scarecrow.

He is confused and fed up.

"You. Scare. Crows. That's what you do. Scare! Crows!"

But the cheeky, noisy birds just won't go away!

What can he do?

A story told with music, movement, puppetry, and fun. Perfect for over 5s. ajtc's second tour of this production will play at venues in England, Scotland, and Wales
